MINISTER LEAVES HIS WIFE.

STARTED FOR A CALL AND WIRED THAT HE'D GONE TO ALASKA.

Mrs. Teal, the wife of the Rev. Arthur R. Teal of Katonah, N. Y., visited Police Headquarters in Jersey City yesterday, accompanied by three friends, and asked Acting Chief of Police Archibald to aid her in searching for her husband. She said that he left home on Tuesday afternoon, saying that he intended to make a call at Bedford, three miles away.

Several hours inter Mrs. Teal received this telegram from him:
Have started for the West and Alaska. The greatest need is there. Will write. It, is my date.

As this message had been forwarded As this message had been forwarded from a telegraph office in the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Jersey City, Mrs. Teal concluded that her husband had boarded a train there, bound for the West. She said that she believed that her husband was slightly demented, as he had apparently worried a great deal over the necessity of missionary work in Alaska, and had frequently said that he felt as if he ought to hasten to that field.

She said that her husband was 28 years

he ought to hasten to that field.

He has a brother living in Denver.

Detective Larkin of Jersey City said last night that Mr. Teal had an account of $1,000 with the Second National Bank of Jersey City and that on Thursday last he drew out $100. About 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening a man answering the description of the missing minister was seen in tion of the missing minister was seen in the Pennsylvania station.

The detective learned that the Rev. Mr. Teal was formers paster of a Presty-terian church in Binghamton and that terian church in Binghamton and that his father was at one time pastor of a Presbyterian church in Elizabeth, N. J. KATONAH, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The news that the Rev. Arthur R. Teal had disappeared was received here to-day with almost incredulous surprise. With the exception of his wife and two or three members of the church, no one in this village until to-night had had any intimation that Mr. Teal had left his horn.

Once out, however, the news quickly spread and to-night the members of Mr. Teal's congregation are speculating upon the cause of his disappearance and confess themselves unable to give a reason for his flight.

Mr. Teal's family life was of the harpiest his relations with the members of his church were unusually friendly, and so far as is known there were no personal troubles of any kind weighing upon him. Since he came here to take churse of the Presbyurian Church he has carned the reputation of being a hard-working, conscientious young

Mr. Teal left his home at 3 o'clock on Mr. Teal left his home at 3 c'clock on Tuesday afternoon ostensibly to take a train to Bedford, two miles away. He told his wife that he would be back in time for dinner. Instead of alighting at Beiford he went through to New York and hurried to the Jersey City terminal of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Soen after 5 o'clock he sent the telegram to his wife Two members of the church went to New York last night to endeaver to find New York last hight to endeavor to had their pastor, but they could get no trace of him and to-day Mrs. Teal, accompanied by Joseph Barrett, one of the elders of the church, took up he search. Beyond ascer-taining that it was Mr Teal himself who handed in the telegram at the Jersey City station, they could learn nothing.

To a Sun reporter she said:

"The only reason 1 can give for this unexpected happening is that my husband is sunering from some halbucination. But when he is it home yesterday he seemed in unusually bright spirits, and there was nothing in his dimeancy to indicate that he t meanor to indicate that he nothing in his demeaner to indicate that he contemplated going away.

"The idea of giving lumself up to missionary work has always been an attractive one to him, and once when he mentioned that he would like to go West to work among people who had little opportunity of hearing the Gospel I told him that I would be willing to give up my house and go with him. That was some time ago, however, and since then he had not referred to the

"He has been in the habit lately of sitting up until the early hours of the morning, studying and reading works on missions, and that may have tended to bring on some temporary abscription of mind." Mr. Tealwas married two years ago, when he was called to Katonah. His wife is a daughter of the late Rowse Babcock of Rhode Island, who was a man of considsiderable means.

Elder Barrett said last night: "Mr Teal and his wife have always been a most loving couple and there has never been a shadow of reflection of any kind attaching to him. He is liked and respected by everybody in the place. He always seemed to be a man of exceptionally strong intellect. The only way in which his disap-pearance can be accounted for is that his mind has become unhinged."
Dr. J. Francis Chapman, another elder of the church, spoke similarly.

That Mr. Teal's action was not due to some sudden impulse, however, seems to be clear from his withdrawing the $400 from the bank. Mrs. Teal learned of this from inquiries she made at the bank to-day. Furthermore, Mr. Teal has worn customarily the orthodox black ministerial clothes, but when he went away yesterday he had on a light summer suit which he had

He left Prince-ton in 1895 and after studying at Auburn Seminary, he became assistant pastor in the Rev. Dr Nichols's church at Bingham-

In July, 1900, he accepted the call to Katonah. Mr. Teal is described as 5 feet
10 inches tall, bald, clean shaven, having brown eyes, and weighing 150 pounds inceton he was a member of the Glee Club and was prominent in athletics After leaving Princeton he went abroad and took a course at Oxford.

When he was at the First Presbyterian

PEDLERS STILL PAY TRIBUTE.

WITNESS TELLS MAYOR LOW'S COMMITTEE ABOUT IT.

Women Assessed Only Ten Cents a Week. but the Pusheart Men Give Up Fifty or the Police Put Them Out of Business - More Clubbing Testimony Taken

When the Mayor's Jewish riot investigation committee resumed its inquiry last night in the University Settlement in Rivington street, Lawyer Ira P. Wheeler, representing R. Hoe & Co., announced that he will produce a number of witnesses the will controvert a good deal of the testimony so far given relating to the part the Hoe employees took in the disturbance. Nearly all the witnesses gave the same version of the disturbance, and the subsequent clubbing as did their predecessors. Dr. Maurice Fishberg of 207 East Broadway, also gave the committee some de-tails of the blackmailing of Jewish pedlers which, he said, had come under his observation in the capacity of medical examiner in the Hester street school. He declared that pedlers who sold their wares from baskets paid 25 cents a week in blackmail. Women were assessed 10 cents a week and pushcart men had to pay 50 cents a week. The money, he said, was collected by a man named Schwartz, and was supposed to be a contribution to a certain pedlers' society which never met. Any person who did not pay the assessment however, was driven out of business by "A wardman came to me one day continued Dr. Fishberg, "and wanted to know if I could give him any information about blackmailing the pedlers. I told him he ought to know more about than I. I was asked to see the captain and he said he was informed that I had found out something about blackmail and wanted to find out what I knew. I refused to tell him. Then it was intimated o me that a certain school jamitor was he guilty man and I ought to tell. As a matter of fact the police were sore on the janitor because he enforced the law and drove the pediers from in front of the School house."

The witness could not remember the name of the captain, but said he was then in the Eldridge street station.

Albert Brobman of 41 Hester street said that when he asked the police to go inside the factory and stop the employees from throwing things at Rabbi Joseph's funeral procession t's policemen paid no attention said that her arms were blistered by hot water thrown from the factory. Marcu Singer of 87 Broome street declared tha so saw hot water poured on the crowd and missiles thrown.

W. M. Weinberg, an insurance agent, said he saw the water thrown in painfuls from the factory windows before any windows had been broken by the indignant mourners. He also told of seeing a policeman in citizer's clothes run after people who were running away and club them on the back of the head. Many witnesses asserted that the police used their clubs The committee adjourned until 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon, when Lawyer Wheeler will call some of his witnesses.

TO BUY CANAL SUPPLIES HERE

French Law Cannot Blnd the United States

to Purchase Abroad, It Is Held. D. M. Parry, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, has received an opinion from Sollivan & Cromwell, general counsel in America of the new Panama Canal Company, which, if upheld, means many millions of dollars to the manufacturers of the United States. The opinion is to the effect that every dollar's worth of machinery and supplies necessary for straint from the operation of the French inally chartered.

provisions governing the old company.

The opinion says in part:

The French law providing for the purchase of supplies in France, is in the act of dune s. 1888. The old Panama Canal Company, being in great need of money, procured the passage of this act, which authorized it to issue interty bonds not exceeding 600,000,000 francs, providing, as a condition of this privilege, that all necessary material for the completion of the canal should be manufactured in France, out of raw material of French origin. The new Panama Canal Company was not affected by this law. It had no power to issue and never did issue any lottery bonds. It was not therefore affected by the condition among the french origin. The new panama Canal Company was not affected by the condition among the first to the privilege, which it did not possess. In fact, it bought much of its machinery and emphies in this country.

It follows, necessarily, that the United States could not be bound by any such provision. No law of France could bind the United States, in any case, outside the limit States could not be bound by any such provision. No law of France could bind the United States, in any case, outside the limit of France itself, but this act does not even profess to do so. The United States is a mere purchaser of the property of the new Panama Canal Company.

We may observe that the Isthmian Canal Commission considered the machinery now on the Isthmius, while in good condition, to be out of date and of no real value. It is obvious therefore that an enormous amount of machinery will be required for the completion of the canal and there can be no doubt that the Government will purchase this in

PITY ROUMANIAN JEWS.

Their Co-Religionists Here Organize to Help Them in Their Miserable State.

The Roumanian Jews living in New York held a mass meeting last night in the Educational Alliance Building and formed a permanent organization to assist their brethren in Roumania, where they assert the Government is following Russia's lead in perseouting the Jews.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. M Marculescu. Speeches were made by M. Schwartz, B. Rabinowitz, Dr. P. A. Siegelstein and others. They denounced Roumanian Government and declared that Roumania were true.

Dr. Siegelstein said that there are now 250,000 Jews actually starving in Roumania. They were prevented from carrying legitimate business and had no rights citizenship.
A resolution was adopted declaring that we, Roumanian Jews living in the United States, each of us knowing from experience the persecution in Roumania, entirely disapprove and condemn the action of the Roumanian Government and the few Jews who have forgotten themselves so much as to unite with the King and Government in such mean actions, and extend our full sympathy and sincerest thanks to the brave reporter of L'Aurore who dared able state of our brethren in Roumania.

The true reason for the withdrawal of the book from circulation-for that is what has been done - is said to be the attitude of President Roosevelt toward the volume's "Sins of Omission." This phrase was coined by Chairman Griggs of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, who ordered that the Democratic Text Book, which was ready for circulation, be held until a chapter or two could be added dealing with the "Sins of Omission" of the Republican volume.

Whether or not this caused the withdrawal of the Republican Text Book from circulation, it is certian that the book is now being revised. It is said that the President considered that the attitude of the Re-publican party on the question of Cuban reciprocity, as expressed in the book, was entirely too negative and did not forcibly enough express the sentiment of the ma-jority in the two houses of Congress. The treatment of the tariff question, it is also said, did not come in for his approval. No date has been set for the republication of the volume.

THE UNGALLANT GOLDBEATERS. Won't Settle Their Strike Unless 100

Women Are Discharged. An unsuccessful attempt was made or Tuesday to settle the strike of the gold beaters, which has now lasted over a month. Committees of the employees, the goldbeaters and the American Federation of Labor met in conference but failed to agree. The goldbeaters throughout the country, who had been averaging as they say, $12 a week, in wages, struck for $21 a week or its equivalent in piece work. They also demanded the discharge of about one hundred women workers. At the meeting on Tuesday the em, loyers offered to raise the wages to $16 a week. The goldbeaters were willing to accept this if the women were discharged, but the em-ployers fatly refused to dismiss the women. The goldbeaters refused to accept any terms which would not include the discharge

Another meeting is to be held to-day.

Jamalea -- Contains Two Strategie

The Island Nearer the Panama Canal Than Any Other West Indies Except

Roadsteads, Samana Bay and Gonaives. WASHINGTON, Aug. 13. - The recent political disturbances in San Domingo and the present revolutionary outbreak in Hayti are attracting the attention of public men here to the menace which these socalled republics present to the United States, and to some extent, to revive discussion of the question of annexation, which has been considered more or less in a sporadic way, for the past thirty years. While members of the Government have commented on the bearing to annexation of the existing conditions in the negro republic, there is no official movement ooking to that end.

To some extent the possession of Porto Rico, the right to acquire coaling stations in Cuba and the desire of the Danish Gov ernment to sell its West Indies possessions to the United States, have tended to lessen the importance of securing Hayti for military strategic reasons. But the generally accepted theor, of strategists, that the next great war in which the United States becomes involved will be fought principarty in the Caribbean Sea, has pr question of Hayti's value as a naval base from being lost sight of among men who follow the profession of arms. The danger of the possession of too many depots of operations, each requiring defence, is obvious, but the advantage of owning Hayti on account of the vame of possessing the strategic roadstead of Samena Bay, in San Domingo territory, is considered by namy as sufficient ground for giving serious consideration to the matter of annexation. Before the abortive attempt to annex San Domingo by treaty was made in Grant's time, the importance of the island to this Government was recognized by military men, and the knowledge of its value for use as a naval station grown since then. McKinley was first President after Grant under w administration the annexation of Hayti was regarded as likely to be accomplished, but the question presented by the acquisi-tion of the Philippines, Porto Rico, Guam, part of Samoa and the Hawaiian Islands and the Danish West Indies negotiations, kept the Administration and Congress kept the Administration and Congress too busy to permit after ion to be given to the Hayti-San Domingo matter.

SURPRISE ON SARATOGA TRACK

DOURO WINS LAST PACE AND MAKES A NEW RECORD.

No One More Surprised Than the Owner, Ex-Congressman Sanford - Mrs. Per per Wins a Big Bet on Par Excellence -Gen. Truey at the Clubhouse SARATOGA, Aug. 13.-Probably the happiest man at the track to-day was the venerable ex-Congressman Stephen Sanford of Amsterdam, now a little more than 81 years old. Douro, a four-year-old horse of his own breeding, won the last race at a mile, and not only beat such flyers as Bay for naval purposes and made some Pert Loyal and Lux Casta, but established The importance of the island of Hayti to the United States has become tenfold greater since the selection of the Panama flat, clipping three-fifths of a second from the record established by Roxane yesterday. Douro was bred at Mr. Sanford's Hurricane Farm at Amsterdam, and is his Potomac out of Seamora, both of which horses Mr. Sanford owns. The horse is a

After the race was over and young Clark was about to dismount, the daughter of one of the matrons in the fashionable set was heard to remark:

"That fellow certainly does ride awfully stockily built brown, and no one was more surprised than Mr. Sanford to find that well and he has a lot of nerve, but if he were engaged to me he'd soon stop risking his neck riding steeplechases. What's the use of being engaged to a fellow who is likely to be brought in to you with a broken neck any day. Its really absurd, you know."

One of the new faces in the clubhouse was that of Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy, who arrived here last night. When the General was asked what he was doing here, he said:
"Well, I heard Gen. Sickles was here, and not knowing just what he might do,
I thought I had better run up ard lock after him. About the only sport I've had this summer, except what I'm getting here, I got at the Lord Derby—Boralma race in Hartford. You know I take a bit more terest in trots than in running. I would not like to express an opinion as to which the better of those two trotters, but soon as I saw Boralma jog before the race I said he was a beaten horse. On that day, even had there been no accidents, Boralma could not have beated Lord Derby
